

EXPERIENCE LETTER

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This is to certify that Ms. Anamika Prajapati successfully completed a four-month internship with Arvion Technologies Pvt. Ltd. from 4 May 2026 to 4 September 2026 under a hybrid work arrangement comprising remote and office-based work.

During her internship, she worked in front-end development and software testing. Her responsibilities included supporting the implementation and refinement of user-facing features, conducting functional testing, identifying and documenting defects, and assisting with quality verification before release.

Throughout her engagement, Anamika demonstrated professionalism, commitment, adaptability, attention to detail, and a strong willingness to learn. She collaborated effectively with the team and completed her assigned responsibilities in a responsible and timely manner.

We appreciate her contribution to Arvion Technologies Pvt. Ltd. and wish her continued success in her future studies and professional career.

Issued in recognition of her internship experience and contribution
